

Anti-Villain

(Verse 1)

He's got a crooked smile, and he's always late
Sneaking 'round the corner, he's got his own fate
He's not a hero, but he's no villain too
Living life in between, he's the anti villain, it's true

(Pre-Chorus)

He'll break your heart, but then he'll make you smile
Got a different story, but it's all worth the while

(Chorus)

He's the anti villain, with a heart of gold
Chasing shadows, but his secrets never told
He's not the one you'd expect, but he'll save your soul
Oh, he's the anti villain, playing his own role

(Verse 2)

He's got his flaws, but he's got his charm
Leaving trails of mystery, keeping us warm
He's not the bad guy, but he's not the best
Living in the gray, he's putting us to the test

(Pre-Chorus)

He'll lead you astray, but then he'll lead you home
Got a different rhythm, but it's all in his tone

(Chorus)

He's the anti villain, with a secret side
Dancing in the shadows, but his spirit's wide
He's not the knight in armor, but he'll be your guide
Oh, he's the anti villain, taking us for a ride

(Bridge)

In a world of black and white, he's the shade of gray
Making his own rules, in his own way

(Chorus)

He's the anti villain, with a twist of fate
Navigating through chaos, but never too late
He's not the one you'd expect, but he'll change your state
Oh, he's the anti villain, sealing our fate
